

DEMOCRACY IN DANGER? EUROPE IN DANGER?!

Summer Course
August 13-19, 2023

STAND UP FOR OUR COMMON VALUES! ... BUT WHICH ONES?

Join the Summer Course and learn more and discuss the current issues related to the ongoing Russian-Ukrainian war, changes in East-West political relations, diversity and human rights, and the role of international organisations, NGOs, civil society and political activism in restoring and maintaining peace and democracy.

What can you expect?

- International participation
- Simulation games, interactive workshops and lively discussions

Main Topics

- The EU's policy objectives and current (geo-)political goals
- Democracy building processes in the international context
- The role of NGOs, civil society and media for freedom and democracy
- A-Day Excursion to Strasbourg

Location:

Europäische Akademie Otzenhausen, 66620 Nonnweiler, Germany

Application are open until May 10, 2023

Participants need to cover their travel cost individually.

The programme fee, an excursion to Strasbourg, full board (all meals) and accommodation in double rooms will be covered by the organisers.